II. PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Our Day Care Workers are indeed a big help to working parents. They will be the direct responsible in molding and developing young minds of our children. Hence, this office believes that they should be provided with appropriate tools and remunerations to effectively perform their roles as surrogate parents as stipulated in the Local Budget Circular No. 73 of the Department of Budget and Management. While constant monitoring and evaluation will be performed by the focal persons with the assistance of day care service parent groups and supervision of the MSWD so as to observe the quality standards and accreditation of center-based ECCD programs.

III. PROJECT SUSTAINABILITY

The DSWD supports and recognizes the important role that the children play in nation building. Furthermore, it supports children's rights to survive, be protected, developed and participates in their development. These principles and policies as well as awareness of the realistic of threats to children prompted the development of Day Care Service.

One of the laws which recognize the need to provide protection and assistance to children is Republic Act No. 6972 which provides for the establishment of Day Care Centers in every barangay. Part of the implementation of RA 6972 is to ensure the quality in the delivery of the Day Care Service is the standardization of Day Care Center operation and this is done through accreditation process of Day Care Workers and Day Care Centers.

Another thing, the State declared some policies and programs to afford the children utmost protection, best care and proper nutrition at the family and community levels. This has been DSWD's contribution to the Early Childhood Care and Development (ECCD) program of the government in the past years.
